President's Message

The recent Heritage Ball, held at Ermington, was an wonderful evening. The Parramatta Town Hall was unavailable this year so alternative arrangements had to be made. The hall was festively decorated and adorned with beautifully gowned ladies, elegantly presented gents, wonderful dancing and music. A delicious and elegant supper was served. Thanks Wendy Richmond, the team of volunteers and the Blacktown Boys' Brigade who created a night to remember! Thanks also go to Dave Johnson and the Heritage Ensemble for the enchanting music. The Recovery Picnic was held at Australiana Village Wilberforce and was an excellent way to wind down after the previous night. A lot of very hard work by amazing volunteers goes into making these events happen and the club thanks each and everyone of you.

We recently said farewell to Laurel Prince who was a member of the Bush Music Club and Australian Heritage Dancers. Laurel was a very interesting, active person and she will greatly missed. Vale Laurel.

The club continues to have a full program, including our regular Beecroft Bush Dances, Poet's Corner, Addison Road Sessions (singing), the Irish Slow Sessions and Monday night dance and music workshops but to name a few so check out our calendar and come along.

Worth Noting

Poetry session in the Hut is being cancelled for June due to the long weekend. Next session will be in July.

The Folk Federation of NSW is holding a picnic for members and their friends at the Garraway picnic area in Parramatta Park on Sunday 17th June 2018, 11.30am - 4.00pm. Come along sing or play some songs.

B.Y.O. food and drink. Small BBQ available. Toilets close by. There is wheelchair access. Parking available in the park close to the picnic area, or a short walk from Westmead station along Railway Pde. A children's play ground is about 100 metres away. No electricity so only bring acoustic instruments and a billy for tea or coffee.

One of the many fascinating people on the Dictionary of Sydney is William Castell, 'professor of dancing', musician and philanderer who lived in Sydney during the 1830s.

He also features in the Quadrille Mania section of Heather Clarke's history of the Quadrille in Australia.

In April we lost one of our members, Laurel Prince who was also involved with the Australian Heritage Dancers for many years.

Blog articles posted in April and May concentrated on dance:

An overview of dance at the National Folk festival, articles on Bundanoon Dancefest, and articles on BMC balls from 1978 to 1989 overwhelmed the other articles. The 1979 Bush Music Festival included a fancy dress ball, and even though Bob's album couldn't be found, photos from the collections of Dave Johnson and Ann Pidcock, and Helen Romeo were available. More photos will be very welcome - especially the photo of Sally & Stuart Leslie as Gum-nut babies!

Poet's Corner

Henry's Day Poem

By Jenny Watson August 2017

Henry did more than just salute us he circled on the air seeking an embrace
And in his unique way forged favour despite those intent on disgrace
A cobalt blue sky, a yellow sun which melted like butter
A promise, prayers answered of some who did mutter
Through gum trees cockies flew, the river behind
An antique school, a veranda, a setting divine

Coral in cold morning light bravely began and stridently told
Of those faces everchanging, neverchanging whose fate we all hold

Jenny's Eureka flame Australian lit and the rose we need a-knowing
And the bushfire's three whose conscience at odds kept them going

Next Peter the Poet set ably forth with quite a splash of dash
And told of Sweeny a man who well could have been but alas
An Anzac's father whose forgiveness stubbornly came too late
And an etched glass on the bar kept there in memory for a mate
The secret beauty that deep, deep down inside his swag lies
And Starvinghurst Jail knowing Henry knows makes you cry

Mary Jane next did sing with an ardent passion real
Fittingly matching Henry's emboldened Eureka zeal
She sang of that sad train ride through patchy water and sky
We journeyed along with her with not quite a dry eye
But uplifted were we as Outside Track was sung
Mates remembered a rousing farewell softened with rum

The day was a-warming and more people swarming
And cockatoos cawing and the markets a-calling

Ian Mac's silent knowing dog a hard man couldn't frown
The Old Bark School pupils who lived life upside down
Outside Track and dreams of a world greater and wide
When rebels might march in the Never Never of our mind

And Marg's Queensland bound Andy did a droving go
And left behind in his wake a whole bunch of woe
A song of the drover's sweetheart's constancy of love
Who accepted him still even without a golden glove
A care worn woman grown hard on the land
A child's tears prove war is not noble or grand

The sun starts to get higher ever higher in the sky
And crowds of Henry drawn people continue to arrive

POETRY anyone?

Enjoy reciting a poem? Sharing a poem with others?
Perhaps writing your own poems? Brushing up on performing some 'bush' poetry?
If so, you are very welcome to come along. A contribution to go with afternoon tea would be appreciated.

Friday 15 June (3rd Friday) - Ian Macintosh

Singer songwriter Ian (The Pump) Macintosh also plays accordion for Morris dancing. He was formerly a Morris man and a key member of the Wheeze and Suck Band. A regular performer at clubs and festivals in Australia, New Zealand and the UK, Ian has also won the Australian Songwriters award (2009 - Rag and Bone), and has been a finalist in two MusicOz songwriting competitions.

Friday 13th July - Butch Hooper

Butch was a foundation member of Perth's Mucky Duck Bush Band. He later formed Full Circle in Canberra with Jerry Everard, and then joined the Sydney scene with Irish band Kellys Heroes, and more recently Hooper & O'Toole.

Friday 10th August - Matthew Black & a few Bottlers

The Bottlers are a hard playing, nine piece, all acoustic folk punk band and as they wouldn't fit on our stage, Matthew will be accompanied by a few Bottlers. The Bottlers believe folk based music should progressively speak of the times it exists in whilst hearkening back to it's past, to the true heart of folk music, people. Because you truly can't get where you're going till you know where you've been.

<http://www.thebottlers.com.au/>

Friday 14th September - Russell Churcher

Russell's first festival performance was as a lead soloist in Peter Bellamy's folk opera 'The Transports' at the 1988 National Folk Festival. He has supported touring performers such as Foster and Allen, Jimmy Little and John Williamson and has performed in front of the Prince of Wales, The Duke Of York and many other well-known hotels. For a number of years he was resident entertainer, penny-farthing cyclist and shingle-splitter at Timbertown theme park Wauchope. In recent times he has performed with Dave de Santi in the duo 'Rusty and The Saint'.

Pennant Hills Dance Activities

Pennant Hills Community Centre: (lower, air-conditioned hall)

The May workshops were focussed on practicing the dances for the BMC's Heritage Ball. Wendy Richmond led these classes and we all appreciated her time and knowledge.

In June we will have a workshop to teach a few of the dances from the Bundanoon dancing weekend. After the long weekend (no workshop on Monday 11th June) we will practice the dances for the workshop's birthday party to be held on 2nd July. Come and join us for this special night, celebrating 22 years of the Pennant Hills dance workshops.

Later in July and August we will be teaching the dances for the New Sydney Ball (to be held on 25th August) and the Monaro Folk Society Ball (to be held on 1st September.)

Even if you are not going to the balls, these are great evenings and allow you to learn the dances at a relaxed pace.

See you at Pennant Hills.

Concert Party News

The Year 2017

The bush musicians and singers were very busy during 2017 apart from attending Hut 44 each Monday evening for the usual tunes and singalongs mixed in with poems and tall stories.

A brief list of the events at which our members performed during the year is shown below:

- Eastwood Ladies Probus Club luncheon held in the West Ryde Leagues Club.
- Winston Hills Shopping Centre for Seniors Week
- Addison Road Centre for Recycling week
- The Bower in Marrickville
- Two Beecroft Bush Dances
- Pennant Hills Dance Workshop Christmas Party
- BBQ Picnic Christmas Party in the park adjacent to Hut 44

Attendances at the Monday night gatherings remain high at over 20 on average throughout the year. This has made a significant contribution to BMC funds following the steep rise in rental costs for the Hut.

SINGABOUT

JUNE 2018

REVIEWS

Danny Spooner's final album - Home

In January 1956 when the 15-month old Bush Music Club released the first issue of Singabout, the Journal of Australian Folksong, the editorial included BMC's aims ... to popularise Australian folk song, and to encourage the composition of a new kind of song - one that is traditional in style but contemporary in theme.

The 14 songs on this CD are a perfect illustration of this aim - a swag of traditional songs, including 5 collected by John Meredith - The Backblocks Shearer/Widgegoera Joe, Union Boy, Another Fall of Rain, Shearers Dream, Sally Sloane's Wee One and songs from modern master songwriters Eric Bogle (Home after which the CD is named, and The Gift of Years), John Warner (Miner's Washing), Hugh MacDonald (Diamantina Drover), NZ's Peter Cape (The Cullers Lament) and others. Danny learnt One of the Has Beens from Jim Buchanan, a member of the Victorian Folk Music Club (founded in 1959 as Bush Music Club of Melbourne) and a frequent visitor to BMC in Sydney. It was also a song Duke Tritton used to sing!

The whole album is a treat and I can't say what is my favourite track, they are all excellent.

Copies are available from Gael Shannon - Deposit $30 in CBA BSB 063 -674 Acc# 1020 3039, Ref your surname, then send an email with your postal address to Gael Shannon <kilmaley@mmnet.com.au>, and she will send it to you.

Poems (A collection of lesser known works) Volume 1 a collection of poems by Pete McMahon.

This booklet of 'performance' (mostly comical) poems (14 in all) may be lesser-known ones but will put a smile on your face. The poems vary quite a bit in their subject matter, from a fantasy poem set on Mt Panorama, written jointly by Helen and Tony Romeo, one about Aussie Rules by Denis Kevans, a 'ghostly' one by Noel May, one about surfing the ultimate wave by Gary Floyd to a couple by Pete about growing up on Sydney's northern beaches where he sailed "closer to the wind than ever". Many have been written by past and present BMC members and some are 'Anon', as Pete tells us, one called Kelly's Place was found on a wall at the Bega Cheese Factory. Although Pete warns us that it doesn't include 'The Man from Snowy River', it is an enjoyable read (or, should I say, enjoyable to say aloud).

Pete can be contacted on www.petemcmahon.com.au for more details or purchase.

Steve Wilson's CD – The Flying Concertina

Steve is the iconic concertina man in the little cap seen on the streets and folk festivals with his paired foot percussion dolls of Malcolm Turnbull & Tony Abbott. Well he has a new set of tunes based around Malcolm & Pauline Hanson. He hasn't done a Trump doll because he doesn't think there is any permanency in Donald.

His latest CD raises funds for the leukaemia foundation which is a very worthy cause, along with his percussion doll mate and fellow folkie, in Tony Smith of Bathurst. Both musician-poets give all their proceeds from busking to the foundation and have often been seen emptying their giving box into other not so successful buskers of the younger sort.

The CD has 16 tunes – some of which are variations of popular tunes & some are his own works. The tunes are rollicking ones with lots of energy and this CD is a worthwhile contribution to folk music, the spoken word & Australian stories. Steve has a unique Australian voice which is pleasant to listen to. He may find it helpful to add a female voice to break up his male voice, but that may not be his style & its up to him really.

The art on the front cover is innovative and works for me.

Having a close friend who has a now healthy young lady who survived childhood Leukaemia & seen the effect upon the family, I recommend this CD to everybody.

I wish Steve the best in his endeavours to present his musical skills & also to raise funds for the Leukaemia foundation & the wonderful work they do.

Cost is $23.50 - <http://www.concertinaman.net/cd.html>

On Her Twentieth Birthday.

Over the threshold of her 'teens,
Out of the green and golden
Childhood period that intervenes,
She steps to the riper olden.

Over the threshold of her 'teens.
Out of that sweeter, softer
Youth, that we all must lose, she leaves,
And nods to the flowers that greet her.

Over the threshold of her 'teens,
Into the richer, wider
Field of woman, she walks and gleams,
With courage and hope beside her.

Maitland Mercury and Hunter River General Advertiser, 30 Aug 1892, p2

Only a Baby's Grave.

Only a Baby's Grave!
Some foot or two at the most
Of star daisied sod; yet I think that God
Knows what that little cost.

Only a baby's grave!
To children even so small
they sit there and sing—so small a thing
Seems scarcely a grave at all.

Only a baby's grave!
Strange! how we moan and fret,
For a little face was here such a space—
Oh! more strange, could we forget!

Only a baby's grave!
Did we measure grief by this,
For tears were shed on our baby dead—
I know how they fell on this.

Only a baby's grave!
Will the little life be much
Too small a gem for His diadem,
Whose Kingdom is made of such?

Only a baby's grave!
Yet oft we may come and sit
By the little stone and thank God to own
We are nearer to Him for it.

Singleton Argus, 12 Sep 1883, p1
