President's Message

Greetings from lockdown and I hope everyone is going ok.

How things have changed in 6 months with Covid 19. All the BMC activities were put on hold for 3 months and only the monthly Poets' Corner and Monday Slow and Music Sessions recommenced in July under very strict conditions with no singing or wind instruments, numbers being limited, sanitising and attendance records kept. The Pennant Hills Workshops and Beecroft Dances are still on hold until the government gives the green light for dancing to recommence. Unfortunately this is not in the near future.

There have been so many concerts on Zoom including the Sydney Folk Festival which was very popular, the Homebaked Concertina Convergence concerts and a Chaika concert that I 'attended' which was terrific.

The BMC AGM is set for Saturday 26th September 2020 at 2pm at the hut with suitable distancing measures in place and we are looking at making the meeting available via one of the online platforms...please check out the details on our website or send a message to the club's phone 0466 877 423.

Stay warm and well and we'll all be looking forward to life returning to normal...whatever that is!!

Worth Noting

The Covideo Folk Club has been established as a private group on Facebook. Lots of good items if you are on Facebook:

Jason and Chloe Roweth are running a weekly live stream on Facebook called Saturday Streaming. Details and a donation link are on their website and the recordings of past events are on YouTube.

Hornsby Folk Club is having live concerts again with restricted numbers (though August got cancelled), and are also running online session nights via Zoom.

As the attendees at past Heritage and Subscription Balls would know, social distancing is not all that new. The hoop skirts or crinolines worn by the ladies can certainly be a considerable aid in keeping partners at a suitable distance!

Upcoming Festivals

Festivals are generally not running at present, and due to the need for long preparation times are unlikely to resume until mid 2021.

The Swagman at the Golden Gate

Anon

Saint Peter put his quart-pot down and rubbed his saintly eyes,
As through the cloud a figure, bowed and pursued by swarms of flies,
Came tramping up to Heaven's Gate and stood there in amaze.
He dropped his swag and tuckerbag and said, 'Well, spare me days!'

'I've humped this old Matilda since the age of seventeen.
There's not a track in the great outback that we two haven't seen;
So when I rolled me final swag I thought I'd cleaned the slate –
But stone the crows! Before me nose I see another gate!'

'In fifty years of tramping and covering all the while
Twelve miles a day, at least to say with two gates to the mile –
I'm not much good at figures but the way I calculate
In my career I've opened near on fifty thousand gates.'

'There was gates that fairly haunt me, there was gates of every sort,
Sagging gates and dragging gates; high, low, long and short.
Gates that seemed to challenge you and gates that seemed to grin -
Lazy gates and crazy gates that hung by half a hinge;'

'Gates tied up with fencing wire and gates with fancy scrolls,
With patent catch and homemade latch, and gates made out of poles.
Wide gates and narrow gates, big barriers and small,
Rusted gates and busted gates – I've wrestled with them all;'

'Now, I've opened them and shut 'em till the sight of all I hate,
And I'd sooner miss yer Heavenly Bliss than open that there gate!
What's that? You say you'll open it! Well, that's what I call nice!
And close it too when I've got through? This MUST be Paradise.'

Have you got time for a bit of a chat?

We are now in the 66th Year of the Bush Music Club and our 70th is just around the corner. The Club has decided it is time to collect all those special memories of people and events. It would just be a friendly chat to talk about old times (and new times). Hopefully from this the Club will be able to publish these reminiscences for the 70th Birthday Celebrations. You don't need to have been President of the Club (but that would be good), everyone has stories to tell and we would love to hear them. We need to hear from dancers, reciters and the musicians.

If you are interested in contributing to this project and would like more information contact Kerry: mandokerry@gmail.com or 0409 600 949.

Unfortunately dancing has had to stop as the risk of spreading infection is much too great in such a close contact activity.

At this stage it is hard to see the workshop being possible before 2021.

See you at Pennant Hills when restrictions ease sufficiently!

From the Archives

Harold Percival Croydon “Duke” Tritton 1886 – 1965 Life Member

In early 1955 John Meredith received an excited phone call from Nancy Keesing saying that she had met an old shearer who knew the entire words to the song ‘Goorianawa’. The old song had proved elusive to collectors, even for Banjo Paterson. John Meredith was going to take no chances so he decided to write to him but before he could post it Duke appeared at the door. John put the tape recorder on and recorded 18 songs including ‘Goorianawa’, ‘Travelling, Down the Castlereagh’, ‘The Shores of Botany Bay’ and others. Duke offered to sing some of his own songs but John was only interested in the traditional songs. We can thank Alan Scott for collecting songs such as ‘The Sandy Hollow Line’, ‘Shearing at the Bar’ and many others.

Duke had been born in Five Dock, New South Wales and after leaving school at 13 he worked a variety of jobs such as a shearer, fencer, timber cutter, coach driver, road worker, fossicker, rabbitter and boxer. The last one provided him with his nickname of “Duke”.

Duke was soon accompanying John on his field trips and introducing him to other performers. Duke began to attend the Concert party. He would normally sing Solo as he was difficult to accompany because he would vary the tempo when he sang. This did not worry anyone as they enjoyed his singing. Not only a performer and composer, his book ‘Time Means Tucker’, tells the story of how, in 1905, at the age of 19, Duke Tritton and his mate ‘Dutchy’ Bishop rolled up their swags and went ‘bush’ in search of work and experience. ‘Time Means Tucker’ was at first published in the Bulletin but later was republished as a book. He sang for the concert party, ABC radio, appeared with Peter Seeger and upstaged Dave Allen on the Dave Allen show.

A final word on the “Duke”: when offered free tickets to the smash hit “Guys and Dolls”, which was showing in Sydney, he declined saying if it was called “Blokes and Sheilas” he would go. They changed the name for the night!

Concert Party News

The BMC Concert Party group has been meeting every Monday night again for the past 7 or 8 weeks.

We have a core group of about 8 regulars and on most nights that has increased to 12 - 14. Everyone has improved playing as it's a concentrated effort with no singing and fewer numbers than before Covid-19. There is no slacking and we get stuck into it...

We miss sorely Ralph and Eric who in previous times were our musical leaders so fortunately George Bolliger has stepped up to the mark as stand in musical director. We have started selecting a dance tune set each week, which maybe was not played much in the past, and spend about 15 minutes practicing, playing and learning that set. Everyone agrees that this extra practice has been very beneficial.

Thanks to all attendees and especially to the "Core" group of regulars who have been along every week.

It's also been really nice to have met some new "Old BMC members" who have come along for an occasional musical fix, that has also added to the enjoyment.

From my perspective it's been great running the sessions and learning new music and dance tunes, I can now actually play the Jacaranda set without totally stuffing it up...
